On a scale of 1-5, 1 being not very interested, how interested would you be in?

An interactive church website that helps you to learn more about what it does and understand more about the Christian faith?
Regular updates via email from the church to tell you about new articles, sermons, audio material, blog entries, online discussions, services & events.
Information and articles about what it means to be a Christian?
Guidance on how to make the most out of the church in your community?
Information that explains what happens during church services and why?
Using the website on a regular basis to read newly published articles, sermons, news posts and community discussions?
Being able to ask questions about any aspect of the Christian faith online, with a personal and confidential response via email?

Please answer the following questions in your own words:

Q: What is your impression of Your Parish Church?

Q: What other things would you like to see the church/website doing?

Q: What is the best time of day for you to be free to attend a meeting, activity or group event at the church?

You can be added to our email update list. If you would like to give us your email address below, we will send you an email to inform you of new content that has been added to the site, to keep you informed at all times of new things happening and additions to the reading material. Your email details will not be shared with any third party and will be used only by Fakenham Parish Church:
